We warmly thank our numerous friends-In the neighboring state and here, For the many favors we've received Through the waning good old year.

We trust old friends may still remain, While many new draw near; And witness in our humble way, How we'll please them through next year. We'll greet their aid with generous pr And a hearty right good cheer; And welcome the public, one and all, To our services through the year.

So come along—be not dismayed, Our terms are not severe; A moderate charge and better work, Our motto in th' ensuing year. We would not harm th' opposing trade, Nor give it cause to fenr;

Throughout the next New Year.

Now, one word more before we part:
We'll shoe your horse or mend your cart,
Repair your wagon to a fraction.
After guarantee good settisaction;

TO THE ELECTORS

The City of Victoria.

CENTLEMEN,—In accordance with a pledge of given by me at the last general election, I again present myself before you as a Candidate for your suffrages. On the last occasion I withdrew from the field contrary to the wishes of many of the electors; but from the carnest desire to benefit the liberal party whose principles I profess. My views as then paced before you, remain unaltered. I was then and still remain a stunneh advocate of all liberal measures, and a strenous opponent of all Government and other jobbery. I have settled in this Colony with my family with the intention of making it my future home. I have invested largely and am censequently largely interested in its future prosperity. I am perfectly independant of either party or sect, and should you honor me by returning me as one of your mombers, my endcavors will be directed to the obtaining of a more equal and just system of taxation, to the defence of the freedom of the Port of Victoria in all its integrity, to the establishment (on just terms) of Direct Mail Communication with the Mother Country, to the opening up of Roads throughout the Island, and to the due encouragement of all enterprises calculated to develop its Mineral and other resources. Upon the general interests of the constituents alone I take my stand. I shall not canvass at all, and should it be your opinion that a better man presents himself, I shall not offer any factious opposition, and I hereby challenge my opponents, whoever they may be to call a public meeting either at the Theater or elsewhere, where we may have an opportunity of expounding our views, and then may the best man with. Your faithful servant,

A. J. WELCH. Quebec St., James' Bay, Friday evening.

To the Electors

The City of Victoria

CENTLEMEN, -- A vacancy having occur-red in your representation in the Leg-islative Assembly, I beg to offer myself as a Can-didate for your suffrages.

As I have had the honor before of representing you for three years, and as I then endeavored to perform my duties faithfully, for which I unhesitatingly refer to the records of the House and not to the reports of the day, I will simply state if now elected by you I shall endeavor again to do my duty.

ow elected by you I shall endeaver again to do my duty.

You and all of us are deeply interested in the presperity of our colony; my legislative efforts shall be carnestly directed to its promotion in every possible manner.

Our Free Port system gives importance to our commerce and attracts capital into the country, which is so greatly needed for the development of its valuable resources, you may rely that I shall oppose any attempt that may be made for political or other purposes to undermine or destroy it.

oppose any attempt that may be made for political or other purposes to undermine or destroy it.

I shall support the enactment of liberal Mining Laws in order to encourage the working of our Mines and the active employment of labor.

I shall support a new Act of Incorporation for the City of Victoria and uphold the Mayor and Council and those acting under them in their official proceedings.

A liberal School System, the making of Roads, the affording of mail facilities, the establishment of Harbor and Coast Defences, and a due regard of the expenditure of the country shall have my most careful attention and ensideration.

The advantages of Female Immigration, in changing the reving character of our population, and in creating many a cheerful and happy home is an element worthy of the greatest consideration in the settlement of the country. I shall ask the substantial co-operation of the Covernment to carry out this view.

DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS

THE OPERATION OF THIS PALA A table remedy upon the stomach, liver and ex-cretory organs is singularly soothing and conserva-tive. It regulates, recruits and purifies them. Dys-pepsia in all its forms yields to its centrol and invigorating properties. Invigorate the System.

Vigorous digestion and pure bile produce nutrici ous blood, and nutricious blood a healthy frame. Boes the victim of a dyspeptic stomach and a disordered liver deare to know how the digestion may be improved, the bile and the other fluids of the body purified? Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Dr. Hostetter's Stommen Bitters. Will accomplish this desirable revolution in the system regulating the secretions and excretions giving tone to the animal julices which dissolve the food, strengthen every relaxed nerve, muscle and three, and brings the whole machinery of vitality into vigorous and healthful play.

The best means of imparting vigor to the broker own frame and shattered constitution, which ha et been invented or discovered, is proffered to the seble of both saxes and all ages in Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters Debility, from whatever cause arising, may be cured; strength, in whatever manner it may have been wasted, may be restored by the use of this powerful and lestitud invigorant. For indigestion and all its painful effects bodily and mental, the area positive specific. A Word to the Aged.

Strengthen the System.

In the decline of life the loss of vital force con-sequent upon physical decay can only be safely sup-plied by some virifying preparation which recruit the strength and spirits, without entailing the ex-haustion which is always the final effect of ordinary stimulants. We tender to the aged Dr. Postetter's Stomach Bitters, As an invigorant and restorative, immediate init beneficial action and permanent in its effects. I fones the stomash, improves the appetite, and actilike a charm upon the sphits. For Females.

Thousands of ladies resort to it as a remedy for hysteria, fluttering of the heart, nervious beadelse vertigo, general debility, and all pseudiar disturbances and derangements to which, as a sex, they are subject. It cheers and enlightens the degreese mental powers, as well as strongthen the body, and its mes in every followed by any reaction. BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS. A jury was empanuelled to try the case of Thompson v. Christian & Zadetsky. This was a wages suit. Since the action was com-menced the defendant Zadetsky has died, the menced the defendant Zudetsky has died, the case therefore went on against the surviving partner. Mr. Ring, instructed by Mr. Green, appeared for the plaintiff, and the Attorney General, instructed by Mr. Bishop, for the defendant. The plaintiff proved that he had been hired by Daniel Toomey, as the agent of Christian & Zudetsky, and that he had worked one month and seventeen days. Daniel Toomey proved the hiring and that the work had been done. For the defence it was set up that Toomey was a contractor and had hired the men to work for himself. This was not supported by any evidence except the not supported by any evidence except the notes of the evidence of Zadesky, which had been taken in the Police Court in another case. The defendant Christian was not in oase. The defendant Christian was not in nttendance, and the jury found a verdict for the plaintiff for $70, the amount claimed.

There were several other cases against the same defendant, which on account of his non-attendance, and on the representation of his attorney, were postponed, on payment of costs by the defendant. They are set down to be tried before a jury on Thursday, the 28th January, 1864.

autumn of 1862. The defendant had been the servant of Newman, a packer, and stayed at the house, telling the plaintiffs that when Newman came along he would pay the bill.—
The plaintiffs were nonsuited.
Great complaints are made by the suitors and witnesses in this court, at the length of time which cases are kept standing on the list; if the court would adopt the course of setting down only a small number of cases for each day, and make a portion of them letura-able at ten o'clock, others at twelve, and others at two o'clock, much valuable time would be saved both to the suitors, the court and the legal profession. This system prevails in most of the county courts in England, and has been found to work well. UN " CHRISTIAN" LIKE CONDUCT .-- A meeting of the creditors of the late firm of Christian & Zadetzky, was advertised to be held yesterday at Mr. Wight's office, a very large number of crediter's attended, but Mr. Christian, the surviving partner, did not put in an appearance; it is supposed that he has left the pearance; it is supposed that he has let the country. The debts of the firm amount to something like $20,000, and the assets consist of the mill and some lumber, only some of the creditors are accurred by mortgage. The majority of the creditors seem determined to make Mr. Christian a bankrupt. A proposition was made to wind up the affairs of the firm under inspection, but this did not meet. firm under inspection, but this did not meet with the approbation of the majority. reliance can the most credulous of his supporters place in the promises of a man who but six short months ago declared his intention to advocate this very Alien Law? But this conduct is simply in accordance with Mr. Franklin's political career. Vacillating, unreliable, "unstable as water," he is

In reply to the charge against thin, of opposing the reduction of the price of public land, his apologist "Citizen" is guilty of "lalsifying the record." He says Mr. Franklin's opposition to the measure consisted in "his warm advocacy of an amendment to the resolution limiting the benefit of the control o he reduction to actual settlers only." Now Dr. Helmeken's amendment which Mr Dr. Helmekon's amendment which Mr. Franklin's advocated so warmly" was simply to 'lay on the table" the resolution for the reduction of the price of land, or in parliamentary tactics, to postpone the whole matter indefinitely. The amendment came from a source where the principle has ever been 'rather to take two steps backward than one forward," and Mr. Franklin, like a true opponent of progress, as he ever has been, and is now, vigorously supported it.

Huge Armstrong Gun.—Recent papers contain elaborate accounts of a new Armstron gun of 13½ inches bore, 15 feet in length, and weighing 22 tons, which was lately tried at Shoeburyness, with conical cast-iron hollow shot weighing 600 pounds. The charge used for it was 70 pounds of powder. Twelve rounds were fired, and the London Morning Post states that with charges of 75 pounds its range is about ten miles. It is a muzzle-loader. The company will thus be able to enter upon the West India and Colon branch of the trade at once, and it is expected that in the aggregate calls of £10 per share will suffice to bring it into the full occupation of a route already producing a large revenue.

Prospectuses and forms of applications for shares may be had at the bankers, brokers. or temporary offices of the company.

COURT MARTIAL UPON LIEUT-COLONEL CRAWLEY.

eral Court-martial assembled by order of his Royal Highness the Field Marshal Comand-ing-in-Chief met for the first time, at the R. Wardlaw, 1st Royal Dragoons; Colonel the Hon. G. T. Devereux, Royal Horse Artillery; Colonel T. G. A. Oakes, 12th Lancers; Lieutenant-Colonel C. Sawyer, 6th Dragoon Guards; Lieutenant-Colonel W. W. odder, 59th Regiment; Lieutenant-Colonel I. N. Sargent, C.B., 34 Regiment; Licuten-int-Colonel S. G. Jenyns, C.B., 13th Hussars; Lieutenant-Colonel H. M. Jones, 73d Regi-Lieutenant-Colonel II. M. Jones, 73d Regiment. As already announced, the inquiry was held in the principal apartment of the Club-house, originally a ball-room, but now converted into a judicial chamber. A barrier of which the resisting power was constantly tested during the day, divided the pontion set apart for the public from that occupied by tribunal and the persons about to come before it: and the numerous smaller rooms at tested during the day, divided the portion set apart for the public from that occupied by tribunal and the persons about to come before it; and the numerous smaller rooms at either side of the court afforded admirable opportunities for purposes of retirement and consultation. A large table was set for the president and officers composing the courtmartial, and at either side of this were smaller tables albited respectively to the prosecution and defence. At the former sat Sir. A. Horsford, K.C.E., the official prosecutor, Mr. Demiscon, the Deputy Judge-Advocate, and their assistants. The latter was eventually occupied by Lieutenant-Colonel Thomas Crawley, his legal advisars, Mr. Vernon Harcourt and Mr. Waller, of the Chancery Bar, Mr. Cocker, solicitor, and Colonel Henry Crawley, brother of the debates in both houses of parliament that an enquiry of the very very follost description would, on my return to England, be made, and it is my earnest to England, be made, and tis my earnest to Englan

Shortly before 11 o'clock the officers and men of the 6th Enniskillen Dragoons, who have been brought from India as witnesses in the members of the Court had answered to their names, witnesses were simply ordered to leave, and they were marched outside again.

At 11 o'clock punctually Colonel Crawley so pertinaciously circulated respecting me."

I am desired by His Royal Highness to inche President, and was conducted to the seat prepared for him. The proceedings were then opened in form. The policial correspondence and warrant authorizing the holding of the court-martial were first read by Colonel J. K. Pipon, officiating deputy judge-advocate; after which Colonel Crawley was asked whether he had any objection to be tried.

D. Yorkes Scarkery, A. G. Western desired to take this opposition. whether he had any objection to be tried whether he had any objection to be tried by the President or any of the members of the Court. The reply being in the negative, the President, members of the court-martial, and officiating Judge-Advocate were all duly swore, and Lieutenant-Colonel Crawley was arraigned upon the following charges:

"1. For conduct unbecoming an officer, and to the prejudice of good order and military discipline, in having at Mhow, during the month of May, A. D. 1862, when the Regimental Sergeant-Major Lilley was confined in close arrest, caused the orders under which he was so confined to be carried into effect with unnecessary and undue severity, effect with unnecessary and undue severity, whereby the said Regimental Sergeant-Major whereby the said Regimental Sergeant-Major Lilloy and his wife were subject to great and grievous hardships and sufferings.

"2: For conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman, and to the prejudice of good order and military discipline, in having at Mhow, on or about the 7th day of June, A. D. 1862, in the course of an address made by him before the General Court-martial which was then being held for the trial of Paymaster T. Smales, 6th Emiskillen Dragoons, expressed himself in the following language. expressed himself in the following language, or in words to the like effect :- Close aror in words to the like effect:— Close arest necessarily implies a sentry over a prisoner, but it does not necessitate his being placed over a prisoner's wife or family, and I can assure the Court that no person could be more shocked than I was when I learned from the evidence of Sergeant Major Lilloy that his wife had been incommoded or annoyed by the procaution taken for his safe custedy. It was Lieutenant and Adjustant Fitzsinon's fault it any such thing occurred, for it was his duty as adjustant to have seen the post assigned to the sentry, and to have taken care that no such improper interference with the privacy of the sergeant-major's taken care that no such improper interference with the privacy of the sergeant-major's wife could have taken place. As it was, immediately I became acquainted with the statement of Sergeant-Major Litley, I sent off orders to have the sentry removed to a post where he could perform his duty equally well without annoying or interfering with Mrs. Litley. Thereby representing that the said Lieutenant and Adjutant Fitzsimon wes in fault for what had occurred, whereas in truth and in fact the said Lieutenant Colonel Crawley then well knew that the said Lieutenant Colonel Crawley then well knew that the said Lieutenant Colonel Crawley then well knew that the said Lieu-tenant and Adjutant Fitzsimon had acted in tenant and Adjutant Fitzsimon had acted in the said manner by the express order and direction of the said Lieutenant-Colonel Crawley."

"Upon being asked whether he pleaded "Guilty" or "Not Guilty," to these, Colonel Crawley said:—Mr. President and gentlemen of the Court—I humbly submit myself to the judgment of the Court whether I ought to be called upon to plead to the charges on two grounds." 1. Had the authorities selected the representatives of that regiment on the score of personal appearance or evident attention to drill, instead of their supposed capacity as witnesses, they could hardly have brought together a finer body of men. It was at first believed that they had been brought in for the purpose of receiving some special instructions from the President, but as soon as Sergeant-Major Lilley, the admission into members of the Court had answered to bosnital of Sergeant-Major Wakefield as
